Address:
Only the community name is needed - No street names or numbers

Phone Number:
If the elector has a phone number or email write it here. It is only used to message electors about voting at election time.

Identity:
If the elector has a driver license this is the best ID. Write the number here.

If they don't have a driver license or passport, someone who is already enrolled to vote can act as their ID. This person needs to write their name, address/community, date of birth and sign it. If they do have a driver license - don't fill this out and don't sign this box.

If you are assisting someone to fill out this form, and you sight another form of photo ID, you can write your details here and sign and date.
